School, church, community activities contribute to our development as versatile individuals scooters zoom by . . . kids come out of Friendly's after friendly chats and cokes . . . mohair's in this year—wonder if they have one at Steiger's—or a sharp discotheque dress . . . visitors comment on the new police-fire station . . . the green looks lovely this fall . . . aren't the Memorial Day activities exciting?

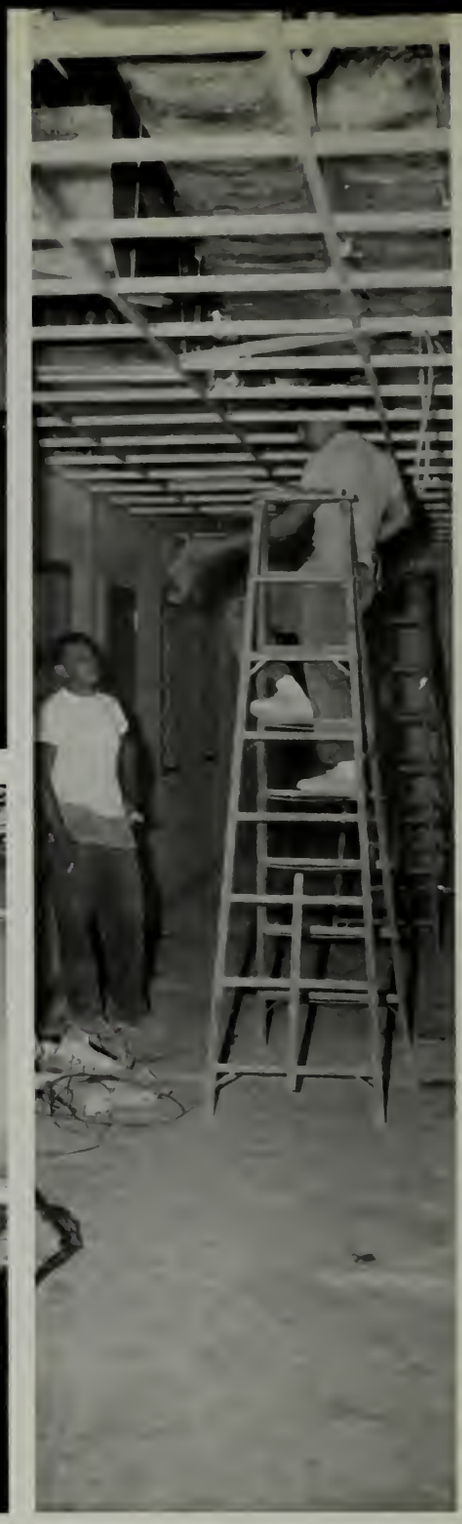
Chief Yarsley talks on safety and the law . . . speed traps on Maple Road . . . are your parents going to the Parents' Council meeting? . . . remember dancing lessons at the Community House . . . wonder who's going to the Drop In Saturday.

church supper before fellowship and what's Father Riendeau talking about tonight? . . . services Friday night . . . the party at Lois's . . . what's going on at Lan's house? . . . isn't Longmeadow a beautiful town? . . . Longmeadow, where we live and grow . . . as scooters zoom by.



Second addition in ten years

double sessions at L.H.S.? . . . no, blueprints and a town meeting and an approved million dollar addition . . . bulldozers, steel beams, bricks, and the dirt, always the dirt . . . speculation about air conditioning and other innovations . . . the fascinating glare of an acetylene torch . . . the mad rush to a 15-minute lunch "hour" . . . the confusion outside . . . the confusion inside . . . all winter-spring-summer, into September . . . then no pencil sharpeners or flags.

hallways cluttered with lunches and lost students . . . discovery of the spacious new team locker rooms . . . development . . . no more fourth lunches or seventy-minute periods . . . private study desks in the library.

the second building addition in ten years of L.H.S. existence . . . from 22 teachers and 300 students in 1955 to 75 teachers and 940 students in 1965 . . . development . . . the world changes . . . and we have changed and developed.

Academics

DURING A RECESS from School Committee business are Mrs. Russell P. Dale, Jr., J. Robert Montgomery, and Mrs. Charles W. Carter, seated; Irving A. Quimby, Dr. Robert D. Russell, and Herbert M. Goldstein.

School Committee, Superintendent bear

problems . . . the needs of the schools, students, and teachers . . . the maintenance of all Longmeadow schools . . . what is the budget for this year, next year, last year?

questions . . . what policies should the school employ? . . . do students need more classrooms? . . . how many students will be in school next year and what about Conant's new edicts—what do you think, Mrs. Carter?

decisions . . . courses of study, the hours and the teachers for summer school . . . new teachers, tenure . . . policies and budget.

problems . . . questions . . . decisions . . . and answers.

it takes a big man to keep a high school, junior high, and five elementary schools operating in harmony . . . budgets to balance, places to go, contacts to make, teachers to recruit . . . a conference with the School Committee concerning oversized classes at Wolf Swamp . . . Mr. Smith, will you please sit down!

today a luncheon with sixty-five other superintendents —"finally I should like to invite you all to visit our newly enlarged high school in Longmeadow" . . . tomorrow a panel discussion for P.T.A.—the importance of elementary school libraries . . . reports from nurses and schools on progress.

indeed a growing community voicing strong demands on education and its superintendent, Dr. Robert Russell.

responsibility for high school policy . . .

DR. ROBERT D. RUSSELL, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

EDGAR G. CRAVER, PRINCIPAL

Springfield College, B.S.
University of Connecticut, M.A.
Harvard University Summer School

Principal instills spirit and pride in achievement.

growth and we-hope progress . . . confusion and-then success . . . new ideas—does your principal make you wear ties? . . . it gives us spirit, pride.

committee's report on how to improve our school . . . new system for electing Student Council officers . . . coffee hours with parents . . . a domestic exchange program with West Virginia . . . Faculty Council . . . achievements which others will follow.

active and energetic . . . did you see him playing tennis yesterday?—did you hear him hollering at the football game? . . . active and energetic.

our principal stands for growth, for innovation, activity . . . he leads us on to become uncommon men, the best in Massachusetts—in the United States?

what a rotten job! . . . just because you're late to class, that's no excuse to run . . . are you chewing gum? . . . where were you E block yesterday?—in the library?—your name isn't on the list . . . fix your tie . . . report to room 145 . . . dungarees? . . . cover that book by tomorrow or—detention . . . discipline.

Mr. Fuller, this new schedule . . . missing classes for assemblies . . . can't meetings start at 2:20? . . . phone doesn't work . . . not enough desks in room 13 . . . complaints.

job well done . . . long stride, friendly, helpful . . . there seems to be some question about . . . yes, what may I do for you? . . . new ideas—service squad . . . fair, just . . . our assistant principal, Mr. Fuller.

MR. FULLER AND SHELLEY FORBESS discuss the many innovations in the high school at the December Honor Society Alumni Tea.

Problems, complaints, and aid keep Mr. Fuller hopping.

ERNESTINE P. WASHBURN

Yes?"

Office coordinates activities in growing school.

THE 2:20 JUDGMENT PERIOD begins for the group that did it again.

hustle, bustle . . . may I help you sir? . . . ring . . . would the following students please report to the office immediately . . . need a pass . . . buzzzz . . . which Crane twin are you? . . . flop—mimeoed papers drop.

file, dial . . . call on line one Mrs. Washburn . . . ring . . . click, click . . . minutes, more minutes . . . date-stamped passes . . . mail and more mail . . . ingoing, out-going . . . people and mail.

patter, clatter . . . deposited money . . . here's the attendance Mrs. Downton . . . questions, answers . . . buzzzz . . . call for Mr. Craver, Mrs. Panto . . . may I have your attention please . . . ring.

THE INTELLECTUAL HIERARCHY of Longmeadow High School includes Mr. Fuller, Mr. Craver, Miss Erickson, Mr. Lopes (seated); Mr. Dexter, Mr. D'Agostino, Mr. Ness, Mr. Haskell, Mr. Pratt (standing).

Faculty Council sets academic standards.

every Wednesday A block . . . we must do something about this new scheduling . . . all our students are out of place . . . budgets, supplies and textbooks . . . great idea, but it won't benefit my department . . . there must be someone to be head of the foreign language dapartment.

all in one office and now one for each . . . such a confusing schedule—two stationary blocks and five rotating ones . . . but class period lengths from 45 to 100 minutes—great . . . which colored paper is for supplies? . . . this year we'll have pluses and minuses . . . remember teacher evaluations in all your free blocks.

how are the advanced courses working out in math, history and English? . . . must do something about all these assemblies—interrupting our classes . . . more academic emphasis . . . a clearing house of problems and ideas .... every Wednesday A block.

BARBARA M. MEIKLEJOHN

"There is no one more egotistical than a Scot."

University of Washington (Seattle)

Our minds grow as the library expands . . .

it's big, spacious, quiet . . . so much room and space . . . the floor is quiet and soft . . . the chairs are soft . . . the windows are big and the desks are small . . . so quiet.

so many books, more books . . . imagine reading all those books . . . Hemingway and Steinbeck . . . Chaucer and Dickens . . . pyschology and Russian revolution . . . so many books . . . so much to learn, study.

quiet voices murmuring . . . E block crowds . . . library aides at the big desk—name, homeroom, stamp, stamp . . . paste and glue —magazines to fix . . . students to help Mrs. Meiklejohn . . . where are the biographies? . . . student's name, homeroom, stamp, stamp . . . can you suggest a good book, Miss Baird? . . . so many good books, in our spacious library.

"Et tu, Brute?" what a stupid question . . . seats are getting hard . . . can't understand this ancient stuff . . . comma separates two independent clauses joined by a . . . prepositions, propositions . . . Huck is a dreamer, and he symbolizes the desire for freedom . . . why did Lord Jim jump? was he afraid —afraid of the emergency?

emergency—term papers due next week . . . haven't started, of course . . . footnotes and quotes and footnotes . . . first word, ab-rogate . . . a noun names a person, place, thing, or idea . . . Ralph, Jack, and Piggy . . . "Kill the pig. Cut her throat. Bash her in."

poetry is concentrated . . . poetry is sense, feeling, tone, intention . . . poetry of the Age of Reason . . . Age of Reason was smug, content, and self-assured . . . definitions, assumptions, revisions, conclusions.

"And now let me check your record."
University of Massachusetts, B. A.
Middlebury College, M. A.
Columbia University, M. A.

Mrs. Bowman, where's the senior sign-up sheet? . . . how long before I get an appointment? . . . two days? . . . but I have to talk to Mr. Dexter right away because I signed up for Latin IV and got into a French I class . . . but, I got to . . . do you want me to go to college? . . . I might as well quit school . . . it's all messed up anyway.

yes, we have the college board scores in . . . well, just a second now, let me get out your record . . . you want to apply to Harvard with that record? . . . why don't you try something a little easier to get into, like . . . where is Lovejoy's Guide to Colleges? . . . the representative from Boston University is here now—will all those seniors who signed up . . .

and where is the sign-up sheet for Tampa University? . . . I have to get out of English tomorrow . . . our college board code is 221-198 . . . where is that sign-up sheet?

Ailing students keep nurse busy.

"REALLY, SCOTT! You don't have a fever!" reassures Mrs. Low.

will all the freshmen football players whose last names begin with A through K please report to the health office immediately for mouthpiece fittings . . . open your mouth wide . . . put that mouthpiece in cold water . . . don't forget your emergency and permission-to-play cards . . . what's your homeroom?

let's skip class . . . I have a headache and an upset stomach . . . may we have aspirins and lie down this block? . . . what are you missing? . . . an English test . . . back you go . . . with my bandaged finger, I won't have to take typing.

the Future Nurses Club will meet at 2:50 today . . . this is an important meeting and all should attend . . . pills, bandages, and temperatures . . . amazing how many sudden illnesses arise daily.

lunch time arrives . . . oh, what a line . . . sorry, sonny, no seconds today . . . no, we can't change a ten dollar bill . . . smells and sights and sounds . . . senses recurring each day.

what, who's complaining about the food? . . . and he's going to eat all that! . . . ugh, what a mess—another dropped tray . . . cheers and laughter and back to class before I'm late.

trays and dishes . . . demanding work, but enjoyable . . . women answering need . . . a service to all.

"WHAT KIND OF SOUP do you have today?"

Mops, brooms, calamities keep custodians on toes.

"ARE YOU SURE there are no empty rooms?"

mops and brooms . . . and the scent of neatness reaches our nostrils . . . requests . . . pleas and instructions . . . the hustle and bustle of everyday affairs . . . and what—lunch time already? . . . full containers here son . . . empty cartons there.

then down to help future L. H. S. students . . . cross now, Sabino . . . watch out for cars . . . now back to my institute of higher learning . . . faced with rooms to clean . . . floors to polish . . . problems to solve.

and somehow with surprise 2:20 arrives . . . together with more rooms to clean . . . more floors to polish . . . more problems to solve . . . and now, around the corner . . . down the stairs and oh, what a distinctive locker room odor . . . windows to shut . . . doors to lock . . . and tomorrow, more mops and brooms.

This was the season that was . . .

what a beautiful day for a football tryout . . . 65-second 440's, 30 situps in one minute, 5 dips, and 6 pull-ups . . . now comes equipment . . . seniors first, then juniors . . . poor sophomores get the leather helmets.

scramble left-right, hit it! . . . the paper says we're ready . . . "L.H.S. one of the teams to beat in the Suburban League" . . . coaches Ursprung, Ryder, and Harris make us as ready as we'll ever be . . . "Holyoke Catholic crumbles before Lancer college type line, 14-6" . . . lookout, South Hadley . . . oh, oh.

here we come Palmer! . . . well, it was a nice bus ride . . . it's Dads' Day already . . . standing room only—the seats are wet . . . score, Longmeadow 0—Minnechaug 0 . . . 'bout as satisfying as kissing your sister.

almost pulled it off at Ludlow—but . . . next comes East Longmeadow, a game of firsts . . . first league victory and Phil's first run . . . now we're ready to knock off Classical . . . well—Enfield hasn't had too good a season . . . oh, well, you can't win 'em all . . . but it would have been nice to break even.

WELL, THAT T-24 TRAP fizzled again!

so . . . we've finally got an undefeated frosh team—bright future ahead for the varsity . . . coaches Johnson and McLean, masterminds behind the success . . . dirt and sweat, happy hour, desire . . . source of remembrance for each player . . . the complex strategy of each play.

but I thought that was Boynton's block . . . and wait . . . a fake punt, a fourth down and twenty-five . . . Richter on a long gain . . . Dalessio fires to Walbridge and Benson . . . and little Dag plunges for the score.

heartbreaks and happiness . . . and . . . Holzapfel intercepts . . . glory and . . . oh no, Nickerson fumbles, but recovers and scores . . . the journey to varsity has begun with an undefeated season.

no glory—lots of work . . . scrabble . . . right, left, faster . . . can't you run as fast as Shattuck? . . . move, only five more sprints . . . leg dive, can't you block out Diamond? . . . hit it . . . up, faster, scrimmage with the varsity . . . tackle that man, don't dance with him . . . put out . . . it takes desire . . . keep that up and you can join the drill team.

all that work—for what? . . . for next year and six j. v. games, for the spectators—for both of them, for riding the bench for the varsity games . . . boy, it's hard . . . I can do better than that . . . it's cold sitting here with no glory.

head it . . . change over . . . dart for the sidelines . . . unfamiliar terms for novice booters . . . new skills to learn, master, perform . . . one-two . . . one-two . . . must be in good condition to play this rugged season . . . insides and wings . . . halfbacks and fullbacks . . . and of course goalie Feldman.

Throne, Petrie, and Miller gain valuable experience for future varsity competition . . . Frisbie leads squad to winning season . . . young players combine talents with new Coach Mannheim . . . seldom praised . . . receiving no glory, just working hard and in two years . . . maybe.

spirit dominates before, during, and after . . . where's the tape? . . . cheers for Mr. Climo . . . an unusually large squad with members on their toes . . . unbeatable combination of explosive offense and stingy defense.

leading scorers Anziano, Bloom, Gibson, and Peverley . . . future varsity hopes soar with record of ten wins, three losses, and a tie . . . 22 junior varsity letters and even varsity on the rugged schedule . . . unquenchable spirit—even in the face of defeat . . . determination tempered by good sportsmanship in j. v. soccer.

to place third in Pioneer Valley League.

a long drought of four games without a goal . . . then Pete's scoring two to defeat Chicopee Comp . . . meeting the state champs on Columbus Day and beating Ludlow, 3-1 . . . earning a successful 8-5-5 season.

Charlie Johnson, Bob Joly, and Pete Miller make All Western Mass. . . . Charlie allows seven goals in eighteen games . . . Bob is everywhere, setting up plays and harrassing the opposition . . . Coach Suher exhorts Colin, Ace, and Sandy to hustle . . . and no Al, not that goal . . . time running out in the last period and losing five games by just one point.

a future for the freshmen? . . . it looks good with spirit and skillful support from the class of '68 . . . Larry Leizure and Tim Walbridge grab the rebounds . . . little Dag and Duane Richter keep the scorer busy . . . Mr. Lavalley's winning team is a team looking forward to varsity play, maybe even next year.

Frosh hoopsters continue victorious skein.

and where have all the people gone . . . a typical Tuesday afternoon j.v. game obscured by a varsity shadow . . . but always underclassmen ready to play their hardest . . . for fledging coach Mannheim.

Bernie for two from the outside and Mike's just stolen the ball again . . . c'mon Arnie, hustle . . . and Chalke gets better every game . . . this team moves . . . and members move up, they hope, to next year's varsity.

Failing to find winning combination, okay, gang, let's go . . . a 42 tap . . . it's our ball—Clark's got it . . . off to Joly and then down to Jimmy . . . to Charlie from downtown—swish . . . he's hot tonight and he's fouled . . . a three pointer.

and the opposition takes the ball out of bounds . . . shoot, shoot you idiot . . . that's the way—too bad! . . . looks as if you missed . . . it's shooters like you that make our rebounders look good . . . but at least hit the rim so it will count as a rebound . . . Hollie's got the ball as the crowd cheers for Otto and his antics again.

time out and Coach Josselyn says a zone press will finish them off . . . Longmeadow pulls ahead with four minutes to go . . . 6 points, 8, 10, 12, 15 point lead . . . foul on 41 in the white—clipping . . . ref, you've got the wrong sport . . . oh, well . . . first team rest . . . we've already won . . . and Joly didn't even foul out.

six times yes . . . thirteen times no—more wins than last year . . . but we're young with three sophs and four juniors . . . sometimes the inexperience hurts . . . but next year will be different . . . we'll be ready for a winning season.

Piels Brothers vs. Colt 45's . . . no, not a brewery . . . the Losers are the winners in the paradoxical world of football intramurals.

how about a little hoop? . . . low fouling and lower scoring with leaders doubling as refs . . . again the seniors are champs.

volleyball . . . even old men teachers can play it . . . watch out for Hooper and Ursprung on the spike . . . they'll beat us, if we're not careful.

a chance for anyone to participate in intramurals.

KNOWN AS THE BEAVERS, Mike D'Angelo, Bob Orsi, Dana Paige, Bob Levine, Pete Miller, Fred Reardon and Harlan Atwood combined to capture the intramural basketball championships.

Watch that spike . . . and commence firing!

nervous and alone on the firing line . . . a steady grip on the rifle . . . tired eyes, cramped arms, and a gentle squeeze on the trigger . . . bang . . . too bad I missed.

more practice . . . more smoke and noise . . . bang bang and more misses . . . a hundred shots later, desperation and frustration . . . what a way to spend Friday night.

well we can't all be Bonnies . . . supposedly practice makes perfect . . . so . . . ready on the left . . . ready on the right . . . commence firing.

READY TO START FIRING are Mr. Villeneuve, Ron Sanders, John Lyons, Bob Rhiner, Jill Parker, and Jim Chivers.

Lancer skiers take third in Western Mass. Meet.

two or three fans show up for a meet at Mt. Tom, but . . . skiers capture third in Western Mass. ski league . . . and victories over every team except South Hadley . . . league record—12 wins, 10 losses . . . overall record—14 and 10.

track and field . . . runners, jumpers, and weightmen . . . individual efforts . . . aiming for a letter, a first place, a school, Western Mass., state, national schoolboy record . . . always another record.

first call for . . . practice . . . two warm-up laps around the track . . . fifty finger-tip pushups for weightmen . . . runners, consult your time schedules . . . have to get in shape.

second call for . . . competition . . . sprinting the 100, 220 and hurdles . . . fighting initial nervousness—then it's all over so fast at the tape . . . running the 440, 880, mile and two mile . . . first the waiting game—then an all-out effort . . . throwing the discus, shot, javelin . . . brief but intense outputs of strength . . . surmounting the high jump, pole vault, broad jump barriers . . . muscle and skill stretching the law of gravity . . . a regular three-ring circus without much audience but with Coach Ursprung's megaphone.

last call for . . . talent . . . a team lacking depth and an impressive record . . . but with individual school records broken . . . with Charlie a Western Mass. champ . . . and with the satisfaction of having new golden-brown tans and co-ordinated bodies.

COACHES HARRIS AND URSPRUNG survey the outlook for another track season.

first tee . . . oh, how embarrassing . . . but not for Coach Haskell's Horde which knocked off previously undefeated Tech twice last season, once with a team average of 77 . . . 210 yards to go—an easy three iron for Dave Nissenbaum, 1964 low leader with a 79.3 average and a winner of third place in Western Mass. . . . a fifteen footer with a left to right break—for regulars Bob Ranahan, Ed Merriam, Bob Leff, Jeff Corcoran, Steve Kellner . . . another imposing threat at the 1965 Western Mass. Tournament . . . opponents, fore!

skipping rope and calisthenics . . . up and down the ladder . . . another hot day with more sweaty T-shirts . . . oh dear it's over the fence again.

get moving, John . . . doubles match . . . I thought you had it . . . love-thirty . . . keep your eyes off the girls and on the ball, Myles . . . you're blind, it hit the tape.

stop mumbling, Charlie . . . got to beat Classical for a perfect season . . . good coach, capable players . . . should have a strong team this year . . . that's a rally . . . game, set, match for L.H.S.

what, a demonstration? . . . well, er, ah . . . you're in Leaders' Club and you can't do that! . . . and leadership —it's illegal to dribble five times—I'm a leader and I ought to know.

where do we put the ping pong tables? . . . hurry, the hop starts at 7:30 . . . where are the records—who lost the Beatles? . . . making two hundred dollars and two left sneakers.

leader of the gym classes . . . you lead calisthenics—I'll turn on the showers . . . referee of intramurals . . . I called only two technical fouls . . . athletics, leadership, ability—the meaning of a leader.

Leaders' Club assists physical education staff.

Here it comes again, that hard, little, white ball.

biting wind, cold feet, leaves and dust in the face . . . what's wrong with these shin guards anyway—they don't seem to fit around the calf of my leg and what is this funny little hoop for? . . . do I have to play again today, Miss Menzie? last time I got hit in the head with a stick . . . now let's see, did they say hit the stick with the ball or the ball with the stick?

run, run, swing, oh my legs—I can't run another step, this field gets longer and longer . . . a winner never quits and a quitter never wins . . . here it comes again, that hard, white, little ball—ouch! . . . no, no, Georgia, not the back of your stick . . . wroom!

here comes that "truck" on their team again . . . lucky she didn't hit it—she would have knocked that cover off . . . she's not good, but she sure has nerve . . . shoot! shoot! this goal is too small and look at the size of those feet on that goalie! . . . there goes the ball again . . . not again! my socks are falling down . . . isn't it almost half time?

MISS MENZIE AND MISS EVANS discuss last minute details about Sports' Night.

BASKETBALL TEAM—Carol Atwood, Lucy Miller, Terry Coon, Jill Parker, Mary Wood, Carol Sunter, Pam Gates, Jane Marcy, Miss Menzie, Kaki Beilby, Mary Reardon, Joan Finn, Anne Exley.

Speedy six conquer nine of eleven opponents.

jump it up . . . fast moving roving players running the full court . . . stationary guards and forwards . . . only three dribbles, not like the boys . . . hook shot —make that basket, Jill . . . corner shot . . . another basket.

get that ball, Carol . . . that's a steal, Joan . . . dribble and another basket for Terry . . . time out and prep talks with Miss Menzie . . . West Side's short and Southwick's tough . . . but we win nine times and only lose twice . . . a respectable record for girls' basketball.

NANCY CANDIB clears three-foot fence.

PAM PACE sets walking pace for the Riding Club.

jodhpurs, saddles, and spurs . . . the aroma of the stables . . . "the Friday group should report to the stables on Wednesday this week" . . . the small saddle's English or is it Western? . . . how do I put on the bridle, Miss Eaton? . . . that horse had better be gentle . . . riding as expression of physical fitness and fun.

trot and canter and trot and post and oh do we ache . . . the excitement of jumping, the gratification of accomplishment—or of at least staying on the horse . . . horse shows and competition: for Nancy, a blue ribbon at Madison Square Garden . . . for us, will we ever be able to jump?

thunder-thunder-thunderation, we're the Lancer delegation . . . a crisp day . . . the cold is chilling, even through my heavy sweater . . . look for a familiar face in the crowd, someone to make you smile . . . and smile even through wet hair and damp wool on Dad's Day . . . we're gonna f-i-g-h-t and ride tandems around the track . . . guide, flip together now . . . and yell at football and occasionally at soccer games.

up in the air, it's vests now, not sweaters any longer . . . around the rim, come on Charlie . . . practice on Wednesday, Margie? . . . Miss Menzie wants everyone there to prepare jumps for Enfield, Agawam, Minnechaug, Ludlow . . . and yes, we'll cheer for the Classical hockey game . . . cheer with determination . . . let's stand up . . . get the crowd going . . . win team win!

JOYCE NORTON

CHAMBER MUSICIANS—Joyce Norton, Judy Eisner, Pat Harwood, Nancy Bein.

A—block: okay violins, let's hear it . . . watch the intonation . . . crescendo here—now way down, under the flutes . . . use your full bow here—hold that C . . . okay, let's try the Faust.

is orchestra this week Tuesday or Thursday? . . . take out the Christmas folio—only five rehearsals until the concert . . . practice . . . maybe we'd better take the music home . . . or use the new practice rooms . . . and now only four more rehearsals until performance.

practice on the field today—bring a chair and stand . . . and clothespins to hold the graduation music . . . Pomp and Circumstance: here we go—in preparation for our final performance.

groups with varying sizes, sexes, and abilities . . . yet all with the same purpose—improvement . . . Freshman Chorus—the amazing conversion of a group of unruly, gossipy girls into a group of well-rehearsed and well-trained gossipy girls . . . Men's Chorus—a little "boy talk" intermingled with a lot of work and determination . . . "hair splitting" becomes routine.

Chorus II—amazing improvement for everyone and a more sophisticated form of gossip . . . Lyrics—hopes for an exchange concert, the Music Festival . . . a group of well-trained musicians, but still much room for improvement . . . Cantori—a newly formed Renaissance group . . . only one person on a part . . . size isn't everything . . . groups differing in size, shape, and caliber, but with universal enthusiasm for vocal music.

Captions, layouts, deadlines

captions, copy, pictures, running heads—what a bother . . . a word that means "exciting," "successful" . . . with many thanks to Roget's Thesaurus . . . a unifying theme.

Mr. Suher's searching for ads and Miss Steele's searching for articles . . . mailing 52 pages on December 15 . . . E Block in room 13 . . . Saturday and vacation awful—awful sessions before deadlines—will we make it?

Charlie's devising new layouts . . . measuring spaces, making it all fit . . . capturing faces, alive faces with Mr. Rhode's camera.

color and an expanded book . . . identifying pictures, lively pictures, natural pictures, everyone's picture . . . secrecy and the rumors . . . the yearbook—to look back on and remember . . . in streams of consciousness.

After more than 100 years of contribution to the joy of living and to the happiness and betterment of childhood through its production of toys, games and educational material, Milton Bradley Company looks forward to the future with confidence.

New and exciting things are happening these days in America's classrooms. The teaching profession knows that educating our children properly requires more than bricks and mortar for new school buildings. Progressive educators with imagination are pioneering and experimenting today with the results which could be the conventional curriculum of tomorrow.

Milton Bradley Company's objective lies in its ability to furnish the necessary tools to meet the demands for child training of the future.

Up at seven, to school by eight, rush for lunch, take same tests, participate in extracurricular activities, then home to catch one's breath. This schedule typifies the Longmeadow High School student's day. From the classroom to Jet Jotter, to stables, Nancy Candib's routine is busy and full. Her leisure time is spent horseback riding. After school, on weekends, and during vacations, Nancy prepares for exciting horse shows. Whether it be at basketball games, in school, or at home, Nancy represents the spirit of Longmeadow High School.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone Company . . . New England's largest employer.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
